Saturday 7th September

The festival week kicks off on with Cartoon Capers. Professional cartoonists will be taking over Pyewell Precinct (in front of Hythe Library). Watch cartoonists draw live before your very eyes. Wander the High Street and take in the cartoon gallery in the shop windows. Get a caricature or cartoon drawn to take away.

Cartoon workshops will also be happening on the day for you to have a go! Including a children's cartooning workshop with Simon Chadwick bookable on the website*

Joli Vyann showcase their playful new performance piece at 12noon and 2.30pm in the Grove Garden (opposite Lidl car park). Life's A Beach observes family life and classic seaside culture via a fusion of dance and circus skills. This fun, chaotic and light-hearted piece weaves in seaside stories of why people love the beach, or hate it – whilst exploring some serious issues like pollution, overcrowding, tourism, and keeping beaches clean.

Sunday 8th September

What Eggs-actly is this all about? Find your creativity in this science creative engineering activity. The Great Egg Race from 11 am -12.30 pm at Gang Warily Recreation Centre. You can take part in this FREE event on your own, in a team or as a family, the aim is to have a lot of fun and get your minds creatively solving the problem of how to get an egg to travel the furthest distance. It's no yolk, you will have access to a pile of 'stuff' to help you build your contraptions, and of course an egg. Which will come first, the chicken or your egg! The Winner gets the Title of 'Egg Race Champion of the Waterside'.

Saturday 14th September

Round off your festival with live music from 1pm at the Forest Home: DJ Arf, BAT2K Samba Band, Tannersbrook Country & Bluegrass, Hampshire Teachers Choir, Yodelling Bob, and FrontLine.

Pop into the library during the week to see your gallery "Wildlife of the Waterside".

Other events taking place during the festival that grown-ups might be interested in: comedy, quiz, poetry, cinema, crafty workshops
